OUR SCHOOLS.—September has come, and the boys and girls, wearied with their long vacation, are waiting with anxious expectation for the sound of the bells which will summon them again to study. In the "good old times," when vacations were short, and the rattan and the birch were always at hand, the first Monday of September used to be a black day in the youthful calendar, but with more improved methods of teaching, the reluctance to attend school has disappeared, and but few there are who don't look forward with pleasure to their meeting with their kind teachers and their lively companions.

Indeed, few things are more worthy of remark than the almost entire cessation of truancy, once so prevalent a fault in our Alexandria schools. Such a thing is never scarcely known in private schools, of which it was once the bane, and the City Superintendent, to whom all such cases are referred from the public schools, tells us that out of the thousand children attending them last year, not more than two or three were reported to him on that account. This is, indeed, a happy change, for it proves that our schools have ceased to be bugbears to the young, and have become, as they ought to be, places where children delight to be.

The Public Schools re-open on Monday as follows:—

Washington, under the charge of Theodore H. Ficklin, A. M., assisted by Miss Virginia E. Clarkson and Miss M. Ellen Price, at the old school house on Washington street near Wilkes.

Custis, under Edgar E. Harper, assisted by Miss Sallie Yates and Miss Mary J. Walsh, at Harlow's Building, N. W. corner of Cameron and Royal streets.

Lee, under Miss K. W. Shay, assisted by Miss Jennie K. Shay, at 183 King street, below Columbus.

Peabody, under Miss Margaretta Law, assisted by Miss Phoebe A. Littlefield, at the Female Free School house next to the Orphan Asylum.

All these schools are for white children, and those who have obtained permits would do well to have their children present at 9 o'clock on Monday, as some grades may be overworked and those who are late may be excluded. It should be remembered too that permits are to be presented to the Principals, even though they do not teach, as in the case of Custis and Peabody schools, in the same house with their assistants. No permits will be granted on Monday, as the entrance of pupils from time to time during the examination would greatly disturb the teachers.

For colored children there are two schools. Snowden, for boys, under the charge of Wm. F. Powell, assisted by Miss Sarah A. Gray, and Miss Harriet B. Douglas, which is kept at the school house on Pitt street, between Gibson and Franklin, and Halliwell, for girls, under Mrs. Matilda A. Madden, assisted by Mrs. Jane A. Crouch and Miss Carrie Claggett, which will be opened, this year, in the school house on Alfred street, between Princess and Oranoco. The same rules apply to these schools as to those for white children.

As to schools not directed by public authority, Alexandria can boast of both many and excellent ones; her superior advantages in point of accessibility and health having attracted many young persons from the surrounding country, and even from distant States. To aid parents in a choice between them, we annex a list of those whose announcements are to be found in our advertising columns.

On Monday next, the 4th inst., the following will open:—

St. John's Academy, Richard L. Carne, A. M., Principal; 334 session. School rooms, Odd Fellows' Hall, North Columbus street, near Queen. Boarding house, 14 Prince street.

Alexandria Academy, John S. Beach, Principal, 14th session. School rooms, Friends Meeting House, S. W. corner of Wolfe and St. Asaph streets.

Wm. H. Greenwell, Friendship Engine House, Alfred street between King and Prince. German—English School, 49 South Alfred street.

Col. S. King Shay, 87 South Pitt street.

Mrs. George, 127 Duke street.

St. Mary's Academy for Young Ladies, Sister M. Leocadia, Superior of the Sisters of the Holy Cross, Principal. School buildings on North Fairfax street, between Cameron and Queen.

On Monday, the 11th inst., H. F. Henry, S. E. corner of King and Alfred streets, 12th session.

Mr. Vernon Institute for Young Ladies, Miss M. A. Roach, Principal; 12 South Washington street.

On Tuesday, the 12th inst., Miss E. C. Adams' Boarding School for Young Ladies. No day scholars received.

On Monday, the 18th inst., Miss Ellen Mark, 24 King street, the oldest private school in the city. Mrs. Robert A. Castleman, 42 South Washington street.

On Wednesday, the 20th inst., Alexandria High School, Charles S. Taylor and John S. Blackburn, Principals, 3d Session. School rooms and boarding house North Washington street, between Cameron and Queen.

Charles L. Powell, Queen street, near Columbus.

Miss Powell's Select School for Young Ladies, N. E. corner of Duke and Washington streets.

Misses Greene for girls, at No. 16 South Fairfax street.

On Monday, the 25th inst., Belle Haven Institute, Miss E. B. Garber and Miss A. L. Tobbe, Principals. School buildings, Queen street above Pitt.

Miss Belle Smith, Washington street, near Cameron.

On Tuesday, the 26th, Miss Hunter, 123 Cameron street.

Besides these, there are to be found in the columns of the Gazette, the advertisements of the following excellent colleges and academies located elsewhere.

Loudoun School, Middleburg, Va. V. Dabney, Principal.

Coombe Cottage Seminary for Young Ladies, Fairfax C. H. Va., Mrs. H. M. Baker, and Mrs. H. C. Fairfax, Principals; opens, September 11th.

Rappahannock Male Academy, Washington, Va., C. H. Barksdale, A. M., Principal; opens Sept. 20th.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

(DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.)

FOREIGN NEWS.

VERSAILLES, Sept. 1.—The acceptance of Thiers' Presidency by the Assembly is not because the Assembly were content with Thiers on his own terms, or afraid of his resignation, but because they could get no one else to take his place. Duc d'Angoulême's final refusal determined that it would be right to vote for the bill. MacMahon, Changarnier and President Grevy were asked, but all refused. Grevy declared himself more of a republican than Thiers, and the others said they were unwilling to be a pretext for disorders.

DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—An amnesty meeting will be held in Phoenix Park to-morrow, (Sunday) and from present indications it will be a monster demonstration of the people of Dublin in favor of mercy and pardon of the imprisoned Fenians.

MADRID, Sept. 2.—Advices from the French frontier state that the Carlists have been ordered to report to their leaders on the 31st inst., and be ready for arising against the Government on the 10th inst.

BERLIN, Sept. 2.—The anniversary of the surrender of the Emperor Napoleon and the army at Sedan was celebrated throughout Germany to-day by festivities of a patriotic character.

The Bavarian Chamber of Representatives has been convoked for September 26.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The boiler exploded on board a bark at Cardiff yesterday. The captain and engineer were blown overboard and drowned.

The number of emigrants who sailed from Liverpool during the month of August was four thousand greater than for the same month of any previous years.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The Anna, bound to Copenhagen, has been wrecked and all on board were lost.

From China.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—The China mail steamer Alaska arrived last evening in 36 days from Hongkong and 26 days from Yokohama. Among her cargo is included 55,645 packages of teas, the largest quantity ever landed from one vessel in an American port.

Political affairs in China and Japan are generally quiet. In the city of Canton rumors had been industriously circulated that the Europeans intended poisoning the Chinese, causing much exasperation among the natives, but measures were taken to promptly crush any uprising of the people.

Great damage has been done by a flood in the vicinity of Canton.

The British war steamer Ringdove had returned from Corea with two Englishmen captured by the Koreans from the wreck of the Chusan. They had been kindly treated. The German reported by the Chinese as having been captured at the same time was found to have left with the Chinese, and it is supposed that the Chinese murdered him and invented the story of his capture by the Koreans to conceal their own crime.

Shanghai papers publish an authenticated letter from the Korean Government to the commander of the United States steamer Wachusett when that ship went up the river in 1893 to enquire after the crew of the ship General Sherman. The letter is friendly and conciliatory to the last degree, and had it been received by the commander at the time it was intended to reach him, the subsequent "bloodshed would never have occurred. The letter was delayed for a few hours in the mean-while the Wachusett sailed without it.

The German iron schooner Valador has been wrecked in the Korean Straits. The crew escaped in boats and were picked up after suffering great hardships.

The tea crops are abundant. The silk product is from fifty to one hundred per cent greater than for the last year and of superior quality, but high prices check operations.

From New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The grand jury yesterday found bills of indictment for murder in the third degree against Jacob H. Vanderbilt, President of the Staten Island Ferry company, James H. Braisted, superintendent, and Henry Robinson, engineer. An indictment for manslaughter in the fourth degree was presented against John K. Mathews, U. S. inspector of boilers. Mr. Mathews has not yet been arrested, but no doubt the action of the grand jury was communicated to him, and it is probable the requisite bail will be promptly furnished.

A duel was fought on Long Island, yesterday between two well-known Italian gentlemen—General Fardoli, and Signo Cauzi. Fardoli was the challenger, claiming that he had been insulted by Cauzi in a speech at the recent Italian festival. The weapons used were sabres. Fardoli received a severe wound in the shoulder, and the fight necessarily ended.

An unknown man was brutally murdered last night in 12th st. by Edward King and Edward Valentine, who were arrested.

There is no further evidence yet in the Rosenzweig case.

MERIDIAN, Miss., September 2.—The square bounded by Front, Johnson, Rhodes and Commerce streets was burned this morning, except the savings bank building. Loss $100,000. The houses were mostly wooden buildings, and there was very little insurance. A large portion of the goods were saved.

The Markets.

LONDON, Sept. 2, 1.30 p. m.—Consols closed at 93½ for both. Bonds quiet.

PARIS, Sept. 2.—Rentes 56 francs 95 centimes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Stocks strong and active. Va. 6's, 67½. New 6's, 104½. Gold steady at 123½. Flour dull and declining. Wheat quiet and unchanged. Corn a shade firmer.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 2.—A. V. 6's, old, 52 bid, 52 ask. Cotton nominal. Flour dull and held firm. Wheat dull, choice white 150½155; fair to good 130½145; amber good to choice 145½150; prime 130½140; common to fair 110½125; Ohio and Indiana 120½137; Pennsylvania 135½143. Corn firmer; yellow southern 70½72; mixed western 69½70. Oats firm at 45½50.

Mrs. Teresa Perkins disappeared from her home in Lowell, Mass., on Wednesday and her dead body was afterwards found in the canal. It bears two severe scalp wounds. An inquest will be held. The deceased was 30 years old.

The annual meeting of the stockholders for the "Alexandria Co-operative Building Association" will be held at their hall on Tuesday evening, the 5th inst., at 7½ o'clock, at which time an election of officers to serve for the ensuing year will be held.

GEORGE R. SHINN, Sec'y.

First Ward Radicals.—A meeting of the Republican Club of the 1st Ward will be held at 8 o'clock next Tuesday night in the colored school house on South Pitt street.

WEIL GOODS BY THE YARD.—Black, Green, Blue and Lead-colored Berge; Blue, Lavender, Green and Black Twist Silk. These goods are of choice shades and beautiful quality. Flour, Mull, Black, Figured, Bobinet and Black Crap; Veils—some very superior.

ROBT. L. WOOD.

WANTED.—A MAN AND WOMAN, or either, on a farm near town. Must be of good character and competent. Call on Mr. Graves at the Toll Bar, on the A. & W. Turnpike road.

Local Brevities.

The sidewalk around the cellar door in front of the store of Mr. Gentzberger, corner of King and St. Asaph streets, caved in yesterday evening, carrying with it Mr. Samuel Kronheimer, who was standing upon it, but fortunately not injuring him.

A small party of excursionists arrived here from Leesburg this morning. Some went to Mount Vernon, some to Washington, and some remained here. They returned to their homes this evening.

Mr. Cluss, the architect of the new Market House, will be in this city on Monday and explain the plans now on exhibition at the Auditor's office.

James Young, the colored man whose skull was fractured by Joe Jarbow, also colored, at Fishtown some days since, is now said, will recover.

Maj. John Green, while showing some land to a gentleman, yesterday, was thrown from a buggy and had his arm sprained. The buggy was considerably damaged.

There was a meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company last night, but no business worthy of special notice was transacted.

The whirling on the top of the barber's pole at the corner of King and St. Asaph street, was stolen last night.

The fishing on Sandy Bar, just below Fort Foot, is said to be excellent. Rock and white perch are caught there in large numbers.

Advices from below report no vessels in the river.

The September term of the County Court will commence, and probably end, on Monday.

Sportsmen are now enjoying themselves in the marshes in this neighborhood.
